CANON XXIII. OF TITLE I. OF THE DIGEST.

OF CHURCH MUSIC.

§ 1. The Selections of the Psalms in Metre, and Hymns, which are set forth by authority, and Anthems in the words of Holy Scripture, are allowed to be sung in all Congregations of this Church before and after Morning and Evening Prayer, and also before and after Sermons, at the discretion of the minister, whose duty it shall be, by standing directions, or from time to time, to appoint such authorized Psalms, Hymns, or Anthems as are to be sung.

§ 2. It shall be the duty of every minister of this Church, with such assistance as he may see fit to employ from persons skilled in music, to give order concerning the tunes to be sung at any time in his church; and especially it shall be his duty to suppress all light and unseemly music, and all indecency and irreverence in the performance, by which vain and ungodly persons profane the service of the sanctuary.

Adopted in GENERAL CONVENTION, Oct., 1874.

CHURCH HYMNAL.

Advent.

L. 8a, 7a, 4.

"Behold, He cometh with clouds; and every eye shall see Him."

ST. THOMAS.
V. Novello.

mf $\text{♩} = 98$. Lo! He comes, with clouds de - scend-ing, Once for fa - vour'd sinners slain;

f Thousand thousand saints at - tend - ing Swell the tri - umph of His train:

Al - le - lu - ia! Al - le - lu - ia! Christ, the Lord, re - turns to reign. A - MEN.

mf Ev'ry eye shall now behold Him, Robed in dreadful majesty;
p Those who set at nought and sold Him, Pierced, and nail'd Him to the tree,
pp Deeply wailing,
p Shall the true Messiah see.

p Every island, sea, and mountain,
Heaven and earth, shall flee away:
All who hate Him must, confounded,
Hear the trump proclaim the day;
Come to judgment,
Come to judgment, come away.

mf Now redemption, long expected,
See in solemn pomp appear:
All His saints, by men rejected,
Now shall meet Him in the air.
f Alleluia!
See the day of God appear.

f Yea, Amen; let all adore Thee, High on Thine eternal throne.
mf Saviour, take the power and glory;
Claim the kingdom for Thine own.
O come quickly,
ff Alleluia! Come, Lord, come. AMEN

M. Madan, 1700; C. Wesley, 1753; J. Cennick, 1755.

2. L.M.

"He cometh to judge the earth."

MASON.
L. Mason, 1830.

p = 52. The Lord will come: the earth shall quake, The hills their fix-ed seat for-sake;

And, withering from the vault of night, The stars withdraw their feeble light. A - MEN.

c The Lord will come: but not the same As once in lowly form He came,
A silent Lamb to slaughter led,
The bruised, the suffering, and the dead.

p Can this be He who wont to stray
A pilgrim on the world's highway;
By power oppress'd, and mock'd by pride?
O God! is this the Crucified?

f The Lord will come: a dreadful form,
With wreath of flame, and robe of storm,
On cherub wings, and wings of wind,
Anointed Judge of human-kind.

f Go, tyrants, to the rocks complain;
Go, seek the mountain's cleft in vain;
But faith, victorious o'er the tomb,
Shall sing for joy, The Lord is come.

AMEN

Bishop Reginald Heber, 1811.

3. L.M.

"They shall perish, but Thou shalt endure."

ILLA.

mf = 52. That day of wrath, that dread-ful day, When heav'n and earth shall pass a - way,

What pow'r shall be the sin-ner's stay? How shall he meet that dread-ful day? A - MEN.

f When, shrivelling like a parchèd scroll,
The flaming heavens together roll,
When louder yet, and yet more dread,
Swells the high trump that wakes the dead.

p O! on that day, that wrathful day,
When man to judgment wakes from clay,
c Be Thou, O Christ, the sinner's stay,
Though heaven and earth shall pass away

AMEN.

Thomas de Celano, 1230: Tr. Walter Scott.

4. L.M. With chorus.

*"Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord; Hosanna in the highest."*HOSANNA Old Melody.

mf Ho-san-na to the liv-ing Lord! Ho-san-na to the in-car-nate Word!

To Christ, Cre-a-tor, Sav-iour, King, Let earth, let heav'n, Ho-san-na sing:

f Ho-sanna, Lord! :||: Hosan-na, Lord! Ho-san-na in the high-est! A-MEN.

f Hosanna, Lord! Thine angels cry; Hosanna, Lord! Thy saints reply;
 Above, beneath us, and around,
 The dead and living swell the sound;
 Hosanna, Lord! Hosanna in the highest!

O Saviour, with protecting care,
 Return to this Thy house of prayer:
 Assembled in Thy Sacred Name,
 Where we Thy parting promise claim,
f Hosanna, Lord! Hosanna in the highest!

mf But, chiefest, in our cleansed breast,
 Eternal! bid Thy Spirit rest:
 And make our secret soul to be A temple pure and worthy Thee.
f Hosanna, Lord! Hosanna in the highest!

mf So in the last and dreadful day,
 When earth and heaven shall melt away,
cres Thy flock, redeem'd from sinful stain,

The Bridegroom is a - ris - ing, And soon He will draw nigh;

Up, pray, and watch, and wres - tle, p At mid - night comes the cry. A-MEN.

mf See that your lamps are burning,
Replenish them with oil;
Look now for your salvation,
The end of sin and toll.
The watchers on the mountain Proclaim the Bridegroom near,
Go meet Him as He cometh, f With Alleluias clear.

f O wise and holy virgins,
Now raise your voices higher,
Till, in your jublations
Ye meet the angel choir.
The marriage-feast is waiting,
The gates wide open stand:
Up, up, ye heirs of glory!
The Bridegroom is at hand.

mp Our hope and expectation
O Jesus, now appear; Arise, thou Sun so longed for,
O'er this benighted sphere!
With hearts and hands uplifted,
We plead, O Lord, to see
The day of earth's redemption,
And ever be with Thee! AMEN.

mf Then to the watchful shepherds it was told,

I bring good tidings of a Saviour's birth
To you and all the nations upon earth :
This day hath God fulfill'd His promised word,
This day is born a Saviour, Christ the Lord."

mp Dis - pel the sor - row from our minds, The darkness from our eyes. A - MEN

f Revive our drooping faith,
Our doubts and fears remove,
And kindle in our breasts the flame
Of never-dying love.

f Convince us of our sin;
Then lead to Jesus' blood,
And to our wondering view reveal
The mercies of our God.

mf 'Tis Thine to cleanse the heart,
To sanctify the soul,
To pour fresh life in every part,
And new-create the whole.

mf Dwell therefore in our hearts,
Our minds from bondage free;
Then shall we know, and praise and love
The Father, Son, and Thee. AMEN.

Thrill'd from the deep dark cloud;

f So, when the Spirit of our God Came down His flock to find,
A voice from heaven was heard abroad,
A rushing mighty wind.

mf It fills the Church of God: it fills
The sinful world around;
Only in stubborn hearts and wills
No place for it is found.

SAINT ANDREW.

f Praise, Lord, for Thine Apostle, the first to welcome Thee,
The first to lead his brother the very Christ to see.
With hearts for Thee made ready, watch we throughout the year,
Forward to lead our brethren to own Thine Advent near.

SAINT THOMAS.

f All praise for Thine Apostle, whose short-lived doubtings prove Thy perfect twofold nature, the fulness of Thy love.
On all who wait Thy coming, shed forth Thy peace, O Lord,
And grant us faith to know Thee, true Man, true God, adored.

SAINT STEPHEN.

mf Praise for the first of Martyrs, who saw Thee ready stand dim To aid in midst of torments, to plead at God's right hand;
Share we with him, if summon'd by death our Lord to own,
On earth the faithful witness, in heav'n the martyr crown.

SAINT JOHN THE EVANGELIST.

mf Praise for the loved Disciple, exile on Patmos' shore;
Praise for the faithful record he to Thy God-head bore;
Praise for the mystic vision, through him to us reveal'd.
May we, in patience waiting, with Thine elect be seal'd

THE INNOCENTS' DAY.

p Praise for Thine Infant Martyrs, by Thee with tenderest love Called early from the warfare to share the rest above.
O Rachel! cease Thy weeping, they rest from pains and cares;
Lord, grant us hearts as guileless, and crowns as bright as theirs.

THE CONVERSION OF SAINT PAUL.

f Praise for the light from heaven, praise for the voice of awe, Praise for the glorious vision the persecutor saw.
Thee, Lord, for his Conversion, we glorify to-day;
So lighten all our darkness with Thy true Spirit's ray.

OTHER HOLY DAYS.

SAINT MATTHIAS.

ms Lord, Thine abiding presence directs the wondrous choice;
For one in place of Judas the faithful now rejoice.
Thy Church from false Apostles for evermore defend,
And by Thy parting promise be with her to the end.

SAINT MARK.

f For him, O Lord, we praise Thee, the weak by grace made strong, Whose labours and whose Gospel enrich our triumph song.
May we in all our weakness find strength from Thee supplied,
And all, as fruitful branches, in Thee,
the Vine, abide.

SAINT PHILIP AND SAINT JAMES.

f All praise for Thine Apostle, bless'd guide to Greek and Jew, And him surnamed Thy brother; keep us Thy brethren true,
And grant the grace to know Thee,
the Way, the Truth, the Life;
To wrestle with temptations till victors in the strife.

SAINT BARNABAS.

ms The Son of Consolation, moved by Thy law of love,
Forsaking earthly treasures, sought riches from above.
As earth now teems with increase, let gifts of grace descend, That Thy true consolations may through the world extend.

SAINT JOHN BAPTIST.

f We praise Thee for the Baptist, Forerunner of the Word,
Our true Elias, making a highway for the Lord.
Of prophets last and greatest, he saw
Thy dawning ray,
Make us the rather bless'd, who love
Thy glorious day.

SAINT PETER.

f Praise for Thy great Apostle, the eager and the bold; Thrice falling, yet repentant, thrice charged to keep Thy fold.
Lord, make Thy pastors faithful, to guard their flocks from ill,
And grant them dauntless courage, with humble, earnest will.

f 20 Then praise we God the Father, and praise we God the Son,
And God the Holy Spirit, Eternal Three in One;
Till all the ransom'd number fall down before the Throne.
And honour, power, and glory ascribe to God alone. AMEN.

SAINT JAMES.

p For him, O Lord, we praise Thee, who, slain by Herod's sword, Drank of Thy cup of suffering, fulfilling thus Thy word.
Curb we all vain impatience to read
Thy veil'd decree,
And count it joy to suffer, if so brought nearer Thee.

SAINT BARTHOLOMEW.

f All praise for Thine Apostle, the faithful, pure and true, Whom underneath the fig-tree Thine eye all-seeing knew.
Like him may we be guileless, true
Israelites indeed.
That Thy abiding Presence our longing souls may feed.

SAINT MATTHEW.

f Praise, Lord, for him whose Gospel
Thy human life declared, Who, worldly gains forsaking, Thy path of suffering shared.
From all unrighteous mammon, O
give us hearts set free,
That we, whate'er our calling, may rise and follow Thee.

SAINT LUKE.

f For that "Beloved Physician," all praise, whose Gospel shows
The Healer of the Nations, the Sharer of our woes.
Thy wine and oil, O Saviour, on bruised hearts deign to pour,
And with true Balm of Gilead anoint us evermore.

SAINT SIMON AND SAINT JUDE.

f Praise, Lord, for Thine Apostles, who seal'd their faith to-day:
One love, one zeal impell'd them to tread the sacred way.
May we with zeal as earnest the faith of Christ maintain,
And bound in love as brethren, at length Thy rest attain.

GENERAL ENDING.

f Apostles, Prophets, Martyrs, and all the sacred throng,
Who wear the spotless raiment, who raise the ceaseless song:
For these, pass'd on before us, Saviour, we Thee adore,
And, walking in their footsteps, would serve Thee more and more.

Playford's Psalter, 1671

mf = 88. Hear what the voice from heaven declares To those in Christ who die;

Re-leased from all their earthly cares, They'll reign with Him on high. A-MEN.

p Then why lament departed friends,
Or shake at death's alarms?
or Death's but the servant Jesus sends To call us to His arms.

mf If sin be pardon'd, we're secure,
Death hath no sting beside;
The law gave sin its strength and power,
But Christ, our Ransom, died.

mf The grave of all His saints He bless'd,
When in the grave He lay:
And, rising thence, their hopes He rais'd
To everlasting day.

f Then, joyfully, while life we have,
To Christ, our Life, we'll sing,
"Where is thy victory, O grave?
And where, O death, thy sting?" AMEN.

= 70. Great God, what do I see and hear! The end of things cre - a - ted!

The Judge of man-kind doth ap-pear On clouds of glo - ry seat - ed!

The trum-pet sounds: the graves re - store The dead which they con - tained be-fore: Pre - pare, my soul, to meet Him! A - MEN.

f The dead in Christ shall first arise
At the last trumpet's sounding,
Caught up to meet Him in the skies,
With joy their Lord surrounding:
No gloomy fears their souls dismay,
His presence sheds eternal day
On those prepared to meet Him.

p But sinners, fill'd with guilty fears,
Behold His wrath prevailing;
For they shall rise, and find their tears
And sighs are unavailing:

dim The day of grace is past and gone;
pp Trembling, they stand before the throne,
All unprepared to meet Him.

mf Great God, what do I see and hear
The end of things created!
The Judge of mankind doth appear,
On clouds of glory seated:

dim Low at His Cross I view the day
When heaven and earth shall pass away,
And thus prepare to meet Him. AMEN

4 For He that is mighty hath magnified me: (pp) and holy is His Name.

p 5 And His mercy is on them that fear Him: through out all generations.

f 6 He hath showed strength with His arm: He hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.

7 He hath put down the mighty from their seat: and hath exalted the humble and meek.

p 8 He hath filled the hungry with good: and the rich He hath sent empty away.

9 He remembering His mercy hath helped His servant Israel: as He promised to our forefathers, Abraham and his seed for ever.

Benedictus.

S. LUKE I: 68.

f BLESSED be the Lord God of Israel:
for He hath visited and redeemed His people;

And hath raised up a mighty servant for us: in the house of His servant David;

As He spake by the mouth of His holy Prophets: which have been since the world began:

That we should be saved from our enemies: and from the hand of all that hate us:

To perform the mercy promised to our forefathers: and to remember His holy Covenant;

To perform the oath which He swore to our forefather Abraham:
that He would give us:

That we being delivered out of the hand of our enemies: might serve Him with out fear;

p In holiness and righteousness before Him: all the days of our life.

mf And thou Child, shalt be called the Prophet of the Highest: for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare His ways;

To give knowledge of salvation unto His people: for the remission of their sins,

Through the tender mercy of our God: whereby the day-spring from on high hath visited us;

To give light to them that sit in darkness, and in the shadow of death: (p) and to guide our feet into the way of peace.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end: Amen.

Draweth nigh this day!

Vernal benediction giving—Christ the Life—the Ever-living!

Send along the angel chorus—

This is Easter Day!

On the Festal Altar glowing Lo! the Paschal Emblems—showing Forth this Easter Day!

Come with garlands, come with treasure,
Come with anthems' raptest measure
For this Easter Day!

How the bells are chiming o'er us
While we join the heavenly chorus!

This is Easter Day!

When Thine own, in Thy communion,

Into life eternal waking,

Endless Easter Day!

PREFACE.

IN deciding upon the proper pointing for this Book of Chants, I have not ventured to follow my own personal tastes, but have thought it my duty to consult acknowledged authorities in ecclesiastical music. By gathering together their published works, I have been able to form a committee composed of the following persons: the Rev. Sir F. A. GORE-OUSELEY, Professor of Music in the University of Oxford; Dr. E. G. MONK, Organist of York Minster; the Rev. THOMAS ROGERS, Precentor of Durham Cathedral, whose Pointed Psalter is less widely known than it deserves to be; Dr. E. S. RIMBAULT; Dr. W. H. MONK, Professor of Music in King's College, London. and Rev. Sir H. W. BAKER, Editors of "Hymns, Ancient and Modern," and the latest English Pointed Psalter, viz., "The Psalter, with Chants Ancient and Modern;" Mr. ARTHUR H. BROWN, Editor of "The Anglican Psalter;" JAMES TURLE, Organist of Westminster Abbey, and Dr. J. STAINER, Organist of S. Paul's Cathedral, London, Editors of "The Cathedral Psalter." In addition to the several Psalters edited by the foregoing, I have had constantly before me "The Psalter pointed according to the Use of Trinity Parish, New York;" and the latest addition to works of this kind, viz., "The Psalter," edited by Mr. W. B. Gilbert, Mus. Bac., Organist of Trinity Chapel, New York.

My plan has been to consult every one of these authorities in the pointing of each verse. In respect to perhaps half the verses, all the authorities agree; in respect to the verses in the pointing of which my committee differ, I have followed the pointing adopted by the majority; where they are equally divided, I have, through their publications, called in other skilled musicians as experts, and have settled upon that pointing in favour of which there is the greatest weight of musical opinion.

I think I may fairly claim, therefore, that the pointing of this book is that which has the approval of a majority of those in this country and England who are best qualified to express an opinion on this subject.

To the works of several of the above-mentioned persons, and especially to the "Psalter, with Chants Ancient and Modern," I am indebted for most of the suggestions contained in the following Notes, as well as for many helps in the arrangement of the Psalms and Canticles.

CHARLES L. HUTCHINS.

THE RECTORY, MEDFORD, MASS.,
Easter tide, 1882.

NOTE.—So many persons who use or desire to use this Hymnal have requested the insertion of italicized syllables in the Canticles and Psalms for chanting, that I have (somewhat reluctantly) adopted them for the forty-third and subsequent editions.

NOTES.

I. The Pointing of the Canticles and Psalms in this Chant Book admits of two forms of chant, sometimes considered incompatible: viz., the Anglican, and the Ancient, or Gregorian.

II. The principle of the Pointing is that of expressing either of these forms of musical composition in its integrity: and the method is that of the old "Bar," which experience has proved to be the best yet tried. All marks not essential to the singer, and all unnecessary stops, have been avoided. The half-bar (·) is placed between words and syllables, only when their division would otherwise be doubtful. Lines placed horizontally (=) show that the preceding syllable must be continued for the space indicated.

III. Whenever two syllables are sung to one note, the accent is on the first, and the second may be as nearly as possible elided.

IV. When, in the Gregorian chant, the two notes of melody at the mediation are in use, and there are more than two syllables to be sung to them, the first syllable only belongs to the first of the two notes. When there is but one syllable in this position, the note after the : is to be omitted.

V. The first note of the chant is the Reciting Note, and takes all the words of the Psalm to the first bar. These words should be deliberately recited, care being taken to avoid both hurrying and drawling. Good chanting is simply correct musical reading. Emphasis, distinctness, expression, etc., should all be regarded as in reading.

VI. The italicized syllable is the accented syllable, and serves as the emphatic or rallying point for the voices before passing to what may be called the music of the chant. It should not be dwelt upon longer than is absolutely necessary, or else the chanting will have a strained and unnatural effect. The emphasis in such words as mighty, blessed, &c. should not be restricted to the syllable which is italicized, but should be distributed equally over the whole word.

VII. Whenever a comma occurs in the recitation, it is to be observed, for it is the mark for "taking breath." The syllable before the comma is not to be sustained. Where no comma occurs, breath is not to be taken till after the colon. On the other hand, no verse should be begun before previously taking a full breath. The neglect of this rule is fatal to good chanting.

VIII. When, after the recitation, a word of more than one syllable is appointed to one note, time must be taken for its proper pronunciation, and the pace of the music must yield to this. It is a neglect of this rule which leads to the too common fault of "gabbling."

IX. Each verse should be taken up immediately after the preceding one, producing a continuous effect, as if, indeed (to a listener), the whole Psalm were one long verse.

X. If the Choir is divided into Decani and Cantoris, both sides should sing the first two verses and occasionally other verses: the Cantoris side (or those sitting on the Gospel side of the Chancel) should sing the 3d verse and the other uneven verses, and the Decani (or those sitting on the Epistle side) should sing the 4th and other even verses. The Glorias, should, of course, be sung by the full choir.

XI. When, with a Gregorian chant, one of the shorter forms of mediation is used, the recitation extends beyond the first bar of the pointing, and up to the second.

XII. The small crotchet, often found in the cadence of the Gregorian chant, belongs invariably to the last syllable in that bar. If there be but one syllable, the small note is omitted; if two syllables and three notes, the first syllable is sung to the two notes slurred, and the second to the crotchet; if there are three syllables, one goes to each note, the last to the crotchet.

XIII. The last note but one in the Gregorian is often (as in Psalm I) a semibreve. This need not be kept strictly in time as in modern music; on the contrary, when it belongs to only one syllable, it may be shortened, in accordance with the freedom of the Gregorian system of chanting in unison.

XIV. In a cadence, otherwise in modern "duple" time, a bar is sometimes found in "triple" measure, as in Psalm I (Tone VI). The two notes slurred together belong to the second syllable of the bar, except there be three syllables, and then each note has a syllable.

XV. When, as in some forms of the Gregorian chants, a group of minims joined together is to be sung on one syllable, care must be taken to sing them no faster than any other minims.

XVI. The Gregorian chants should, of course, be sung in unison. The accompaniment is provided for the use of the organist, not of the choir. This accompaniment is occasionally varied, and the organist, as he becomes familiar with the use of the book, will readily transfer these variations from one part of it to another. The harmony on the reciting note should not be continually changed by organ passages. The beauty of chanting is due, in a measure, to its monotony.

XVII. The intonation of the first verse, as far as the colon, is usually sung without the organ, either by the Precentor, or by the men of the choir together; of which the latter method is, musically, much preferable. The organist should play this part of the chant through previously, at the end touching the first note of the intonation again.

XVIII. In the use of the Anglican chant, the chant should be played through before the choir begins to sing. In the directions for the use of the organ stops, unless there are three rows of keys, the words "Choir Organ" indicate the softest stops on the "Great Organ." In verses marked "Mel. on G. O." the melody is to be played on the "Great," on such a stop as the open Diapason; the accompanying chords on the Swell.

XIX. The attempt to indicate the "tempo" of the chant by the metronomic number, is to be understood as applying to both Anglican and Gregorian forms of chant, and as referring to the minims of the mediation and cadence. These numbers will show also the variations in tempo for the different Psalms; which are often chanted not only too fast, but at too much the same pace. Singers will soon learn to regulate the speed of the recitation by that of the minims; and this relation of speed should not be lost sight of.

XX. The shortened form of the Benedicite simply follows ancient liturgical usage, in which the refrain was sung only in special verses. This form may be recommended for week-day use.

XXI. F. signifies that the verse is to be sung by both sides of the choir. C. to be sung by the Cantor's side: D. to be sung by the Decani side. If the choir is not thus divided, these marks may be disregarded. f signifies loud: mf moderately loud: p soft: mp moderately soft.

PRIEST.

Grant, O LORD, that what we sing with our lips we may believe in our hearts; and what we believe in our hearts, we may practise in our lives. Make us more worthy to lead the praises of Thy Church; and may we so worship Thee here below, that we may worship Thee for ever hereafter in heaven: through JESUS CHRIST our LORD.

A - men.

AFTER SERVICE,

(On the same note as the prayer above.)

Cleanse us, O LORD, and keep us undefiled, that we may be numbered among those blessed ones, who, having washed their robes and made them white in the Blood of the Lamb, stand before Thy Throne, and serve Thee day and night in Thy Temple: for JESUS CHRIST's sake. Amen.

BRIDGE.

From PSALMS XXXIX and XC.

Soft G. O.

Fp LORD, let me know my end, and the number of my days: that I may be certified how long I have to live.

Fp 2 Behold Thou hast made my days as it were a span: long: and mine age is even as nothing in respect of Thee, and verily every man living is altogether vanity.

C 3 For man walketh in a vain shadow, and disquieteth him self in vain: he heapeth up riches, and cannot tell who shall gather them.

Swell Open.

Dcr 4 And now Lord what is my hope: truly my hope is even in Thee.

C 5 Deliver me from all mine offences: and make me not a rebuke: unto the foolish.

(Closed.)

Dp 6 When Thou with rebukes dost chasten man for sin, Thou makest his beauty to consume away, like as it were a moth fretting a garment: every man therefore is but vanity.

(Open.)

Ccr 7 Hear my prayer O Lord, and with Thine ears consider my calling: hold not Thy peace: at my tears.

(Closed.)

Dp 8 For I am a stranger with Thee: and a sojourner as all my fathers were.

C 9 O spare me a little, that I may recover my strength: before I go hence, I and be no more seen.

Soft G. O.

Dp 10 Lord, Thou hast been our refuge: from one generation to another.

454.

DOWNES.

C 11 Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever the earth and the world were made: Thou art God from everlasting and world with out end.

D 12 Thou turnest man to destruction: again Thou sayest, Come again ye children of men.

C 13 For a thousand years in Thy sight are but as yesterday: seeing that is past as a watch: in the night.

D 14 As soon as Thou scatterest them they are even as a sleep: and fade away suddenly like the grass.

C 15 In the morning it is green and groweth up: but in the evening it is cut down dried up and wither'd.

Swell.

Dp 16 For we consume away in Thy displeasure: and are afraid at Thy wrathful indignation.

Cp 17 Thou hast set our misdeeds before Thee: and our secret sins in the light of Thy countenance.

D 18 For when Thou art angry all our days are gone: we bring our years to an end, as it were a tale: that is told.

C 19 The days of our age are three-score years and ten: and though men be so strong that they come to four-score years: yet is their strength then but labour and sorrow: so soon passeth it away and we are gone.

Dcr 20 So teach us to number our days: that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom.

And, we beseech Thee, give us that due sense of all Thy mercies, that our hearts may be unfeignedly thankful, and that we show forth Thy praise, not only with our lips, but in our lives; by giving up ourselves to Thy service, and by walking before Thee in holiness and righteousness all our days; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with Thee, and the Holy Ghost, be all honour and glory, world without end. Amen.

ALMIGHTY God, who hast given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common supplications unto Thee: and dost promise that when two or three are gathered together in Thy Name, Thou wilt grant their requests; Fulfil now, O Lord, the desires and petitions of Thy servants, as may be most expedient for them; granting us in this world knowledge of Thy truth, and in the world to come life everlasting. Amen.

THE GRACE of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with us all evermore. Amen.
